Room Size Guide

Tables range in length from 9’ to 22’. The most common length for home use is 12’-16’. Official tournaments are played on 22’ long tables. Some bars in the Twin Cities Metro Area have tournament size shuffleboard tables.

The playfield is typically made into one solid piece weighing on average 20 pounds per foot. On a 22’ table that’s 440 pounds and that doesn’t even include the frame! Peters expert delivery crew members deliver and set-up these tables to ensure they arrive in mint condition. We do have the ability to order tables with a two piece playfield to fit through tighter entrances. Remember to consider how this will get into your home, especially a basement game room.
