Details

Specifications

Tropitone® has incorporated fire pits as an integral addition to our brand's table line. The models are beautiful, functional and coordinate with our current product offerings. But, most importantly, safety was designed into each model and each model has been certified by an independent agency.

The design allows for the combination of one of the Tropitone® brand's most popular table top designs with a single common base in multiple finishes. Each fire pit is shipped fully assembled and includes table top, base and burner system.
