Specifications

Perfect for transitional and contemporary spaces alike, it's designed with natural finished solid mango hardwood set on a hand-forged iron leg base. Light distressing lends the metal an aged finish. The natural mango wood evokes incredible depth thanks to its gentle patina, brought to life with a waxy caramel lacquer applied over the sandblasted surface.

Simple yet refined, this dynamic clock features a vertical, hand-forged iron dial marker bearing black hour and minute hands. It's a low-key complement for a design that needs very little to stand out except for its clean lines, exquisite artisanship, and unparalleled attention to detail.
