DETAILS

Created sometime around 1890, the Pride of Cleveland's history is largely unknown. It was probably built by The Cleveland Billiard and Mfg. Company; a company known for their massive and elaborate tables. Each table is unique with its own distinct details.

This Pride of Cleveland sports a beautiful quarter sawn oak frame with burled ash aprons and legs. Completing this table are highly detailed carvings on the legs and frame making this handsome Pride of Cleveland a work of art.
