Specifications

The Whitelock by Howard Miller is a premium white grandfather clock with unique design features.

This elegant timepiece shines thanks to its glossy white finish, inset mirror panels and timeless choice of Westminster or Ave Maria chimes.

Helping this white grandfather clock stand out is its gloss white finish on select hardwoods and veneers.

Crafted with a modern style, this white grandfather clock features a modern, flat top with simple but elegant lines and a platform base that elevates the clock off the floor.

A polished chrome-finished bezel surrounds the gloss white dial, which features polished chrome finished Arabic numerals, hour markers, minute track, and hands. Polished chrome-finished decorative weight shells paired with the polished chrome-finished, grid pendulum adds to the linear appeal of this clock.

This white grandfather clock is equipped with many extras. The clock features beveled glass on the front, plain glass on the sides, and the entire case interior is illuminated and enhanced by mirrored back and bottom panels. The upper back panel is removable, allowing access to the movement and pendulum driver.

Additionally, four-floor levelers level the cabinet on any surface.
